Virginia Nicholson: 'Millions Like Us'

Local author Virginia Nicholson talks about her recent book about the roles of women in World War II and afterwards.

"... full of evocative and intensely personal stories that bring the period alive for those of us who were born after the war ended but knew people who were involved in it. It gave me a fresh and moving insight into what it was like to live through such a momentous period in history."

7.45pm Lecture Room, Lewes Town Hall. Open to all – admission £2 for non-members and wine in the interval
